Quote unquote

When you will wave the flag in Tokyo, the world will see. Don't take pressure of winning, just tell yourself one thing that we will do our best. I will say it again 'cheer for India'. I see you all together and I see some things common – confidence, positivity, discipline, dedication and commitment. You are a reflection of new India. You come from all of India, some started in field, some in academies but all of you are part of Team India. You are going to represent the country, and this spirit is the image of India. You play with all your spirit, work more on your technique

SUNDAR PICHAI

The CEO of Alphabet and Google, in an interview with the BBC, shared his thoughts on internet freedom, kids' dependence on technology, and much more...

ON WHETHER TECHNOLOGY IS DESTROYING KIDS' CREATIVITY AND ABILITY TO BUILD RELATIONSHIPS

I think we should worry, and I'm glad there are experts looking at areas like mental health, and all that, but I would also say that throughout history, we've always been worried about technology.

ON FREE AND OPEN INTERNET

The free and open internet is under attack in countries around the world. Many countries are restricting the flow of information and the model is often taken for granted. None of our major products and services are available in China.

ON ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

I view Artificial Intelligence (AI) as the most-profound technology that humanity will ever develop and work on. You know, if you think about fire or electricity or the internet, AI is like that. But I think AI is even more profound.

I allow my kids to be on YouTube. As far as policy on screen time for kids is concerned, I think this generation needs to learn to adapt to technology, it's going to be a big part of their lives. So, I've encouraged them to develop boundaries on their own, but I approach it as a journey of personal responsibility. On whether children should be allowed to spend time on YouTube

ON INDIA

I am an American citizen but India is deeply within me. So, it's a big part of who I am.

ON WHEN DID HE LAST CRY

Seeing the morgue trucks parked around the world through Covid, and seeing what's happened in India.

PHISHING ATTACKS VIA WHATSAPP, TELEGRAM SOAR IN INDIA

India is among the top-three countries facing phishing attacks primarily via instant mobile messaging apps like Facebook-owned WhatsApp and highly-encrypted Telegram, a new report has claimed. The biggest share of detected malicious links between December 2020 and May were sent via WhatsApp (89.6 per cent), followed by Telegram (5.6 per cent), according to data shared by Kaspersky Internet Security for Android, part of the cyber security firm Kaspersky Lab.

Countries experiencing the highest number of phishing attacks were Russia (46 per cent), Brazil (15 per cent) and India (7 per cent)

BEWARE

1 In a phishing attack, a cybercriminal sends a fraudulent message designed to trick a human victim into revealing sensitive information to the attacker, or to deploy malicious software on the victim's infrastructure like ransomware

2 Sometimes, it can be difficult to determine whether an attack is phishing, as the difference can be just one character or a minor mistake

3 Even if messages and websites look real, the hyperlinks, most likely, will have incorrect spelling, or they can redirect you to a different place

4 Even if a message or letter came from one of your best friends, remember that their accounts could also have been hacked

5 Remain cautious in any situation. Even if a message seems friendly, be wary of links and attachments

FOR THE RECORD

MEET CHRIS GAYLE: BOSS OF T20 UNIVERSE

For him, age is just a number. West Indies opener Chris Gayle isn't just an entertainer in the shortest format of the game but a true legend when it comes to limited-overs cricket. In the third T20I against Australia recently, the 'Universe Boss' reached another breathtaking milestone, as he became the first batsman all across the globe to register 14,000 runs in T20 cricket alone. The hard-hitting batsman reached the milestone with a six off Adam Zampa.

Following Gayle on the list is his compatriot Kieron Pollard, who has 10,836 runs in the format to his name. Pakistan's Shoaib Malik isn't far behind Pollard with 1,074 runs in 425 matches. Australia's David Warner (10,017 runs in 304 matches) and India's Virat Kohli (9,992 runs in 310 matches) complete the top five

Tennis Star Naomi Osaka gets own line of Barbie dolls

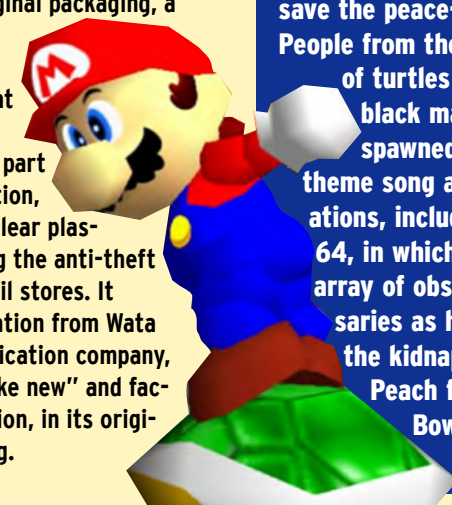

Four-time Grand Slam singles champion Naomi Osaka now has her own line of Barbie dolls. The 23-year-old world No 2 tennis player, who has used her position to call attention to issues of police violence and racial inequality, became a part of Mattel Inc's push to make its iconic toy line more diverse, with dolls based on different role models and professions. "It's such an honour to be a part of the Barbie Role Model series, and to remind young girls that they can make a difference in the world. I want young girls everywhere to feel empowered to dream big," Osaka, who grew up idolising 23-times Grand Slam champion Serena Williams, said in a statement.

FOR A CAUSE

Mattel's tie-up with Japan's Osaka is the latest example of brands becoming more comfortable with taking a stand on social issues and banking on partnerships with female athletes to pull in new customers
In April, Gap Inc's Athleta brand signed four-time Olympic gymnastics champion Simone Biles for a new apparel partnership, with a focus on diversity and inclusion
Mattel also has Barbie dolls modelled on US soccer player Alex Morgan and Olympic fencer Ibtihaj Muhammad

The game spawned an enduring theme song and multiple variations, including Super Mario 64, in which Mario faces an array of obstacles and adversaries as he tries to rescue the kidnapped Princess Peach from the villain Bowser

Exploring the wild side

Author Vaishali Shroff's latest children's book 'Sita's Chitwan' takes young readers on a tour to Nepal's first national park. Narrated from the perspective of an 8-year-old Sita who dreams of becoming a nature guide just like her Baba, the book has plenty of astonishing facts about Chitwan National Park, and aims to inspire young readers about taking interest in wildlife. Excerpts from an interview:

nitya.shukla@timesgroup.com

Q WHAT INSPIRED YOU TO WRITE 'SITA'S CHITWAN'?

While I have visited many national parks, I spent an entire day walking inside Chitwan National Park in Nepal with my family and our nature guide – Man Bahadur. He showed us the significance of slowing down, enjoying the breathtaking beauty around us, listening to the melodious yet haunting sounds, and feeling the forest with all our senses. We would have missed all this in the rush of completing the forest trail. This experience, my passion for forests and conservation, and the need to make readers empathise with all the creatures on our planet, compelled me to write 'Sita's Chitwan'.

Q THE CHOICE OF A FEMALE NATURE GUIDE WAS QUITE UNIQUE. WHY?

It's definitely rare to see a fe-

Chitwan National Park in Nepal is as big as 1,78,000 football grounds! Tharus, the 'people of the forest' have been living in Chitwan for over 400 years. The national park is home to more than 550 species of birds. And it's the abode of one-horned rhinos sects, reptiles, and every little species depend on each other for survival. It's a very symbiotic existence. The monkeys jump from one tree to another, dropping leaves and fruits to the ground, which are in turn eaten by the deer—they are always seen hanging around together. Monkeys also warn the deer against stealthy predators. Every creature helps another and that is something we need to imbibe in our day-to-day living, especially in the troubled times that we live in.

Q WHAT ARE YOUR FAVOURITE CHILDREN'S STORIES?

I love realistic fiction, thrillers, detective stories and works of non-fiction. I love poetry, too. I've always enjoyed reading the amazing worlds created by the likes of Sukumar Ray and his son, Satyajit Ray, Rabindranath Tagore, Neil Gaiman, Michael Morpurgo, Kate DiCamillo, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Agatha Christie, Shel Silverstein, Jack Prelutsky, Edward Lear, Jacqueline Woodson, among others. I also read books on environment by authors such as David Attenborough, Bill Bryson, and Douglas Adams among many other legends.

Q HOW DO YOU DECIDE WHAT TO WRITE ON? IN TERMS OF YOUR STORIES/THEMES.

If I feel strongly and passionately about something, I write about it. That's when I can feel the subject, the characters, in a way that my thoughts flow naturally through words. I was so overwhelmed and moved by my collective experiences inside forests across the last decade that I just had to write Sita's story. That's the only way the reader can feel what they are reading and feel encouraged to do their bit for our planet—I have tried my best to achieve that.

WRITING TIPS

Read. Read a lot. Reading broadens your perspective and widens your horizons. Reading gives you a lot to think about and fills you up with fresh ideas, words, and new worlds you can create. It also helps you to understand how stories and books are structured.

Focus on writing well and on improving your craft with every new story you write. If you are writing stories for children, just think about the kind of stories you enjoyed reading as a child. Think about how you can make the most boring subjects most enjoyable for children to read. Above all, enjoy the entire process of writing!

Q WHAT IS THAT WE CAN LEARN FROM LIFE IN FORESTS?

It's a common myth that forests are places where one wild animal eats another wild animal. That's not all that happens inside a forest. It's the most peaceful place on earth where the entire ecosystem—from the grass to the trees, birds, animals, in-

Filmmaker Durba Sahay has highlighted the beauty of guru-shishya (teacher-student) tradition in her debut directorial work 'Aavartan'. Relevant for youngsters, the movie is about connecting to Indian culture. Sahay entered the world of acting by doing theatre as a child artist and eventually progressed to script writing and direction (she made a couple of short films before her present feature film debut). In a conversation with Times NIE, Sahay gives suggestions to young people on how to begin a career in filmmaking and shares her professional learnings.

What should you do with a sunburn?

Sometimes, when you spend too much time in the sun, you may end up burning your skin. If that happens, what should you do?

"Cover the affected parts of the skin and stay in the shade until your skin has healed," says UK-based consultant dermatologist Anjali Mahto.

She recommends pain relief medicines such as ibuprofen to reduce pain and inflammation. A cool compress or a shower in lukewarm temperature water will also help. "Moisturise with a fragrance-free cream or lotion. Aloe vera or soy lotions can be helpful too, but be wary of creams with petrolatum, benzocaine or lidocaine, which may trap heat in the skin," Mahto adds. DAILY MIRROR

DO IT YOURSELF

Dreamcatcher is a hanging ornament used in Native American cultures as protective charm. It was said to catch bad dreams in its woven net and allow only the good ones to pass. Today it is used as a decorative item, adding to the aesthetic of your room.

To make your own dreamcatcher start with a metal or wooden ring and wrap a broad string of your choice around it. Next comes the highlight of the piece, that is the women net. It is done usually with a thin string across the ring to create a net where the dreams are caught. There are various net patterns you can try according to your own skill and patience.

Lastly you must decorate the dreamcatcher with feathers and beads to complete the look. All that is left now is to hang it over your window and sleep tight, the dreams will be taken care of!

BOOK: SHADOW AND BONE BY LEIGH BARDUGO

The kingdom of Ravka, surrounded by enemies, is divided in two by the Shadow Fold - an arena of impregnable darkness inhabited by monsters called volcra who feed on human flesh. The black horrors of the Fold seemed to have no end.

But that was before Alina Starkov, an ordinary mapmaker, unexpectedly summoned light and drove away some volcra in the Fold. She was branded the 'Sun Summoner' - a summoner not only of light, but of hope, for her power symbolized an end to the abomination that is the Fold.

Alina gets dragged to the Little Palace with the Darkling, son of the King of Ravka, to train as one of the Grisha - folk who can manipulate matter or elements, also called 'Masters of the Small Science'.

Leigh Bardugo binds together the story of Alina with all the elements: suspense, action, humour, romance - and, most of all, power. She triumphs in keeping us readers hooked, with twists and turns all along the way.

Most of all, 'Shadow and Bone' empowers us by asserting the fact that even seemingly weak, plain and extraordinary people can hold the mightiest powers, if only we believe in ourselves.

The left-handed opener was given the reins of the team after Virat Kohli and other key players were sent to England for the WTC Final against New Zealand and the five-Test series against the hosts. Sri Lanka's limited overs tour, comprising of three ODIs and as many T20s, will begin on July 18 in Colombo. "It is a big achievement for me that I have become the captain of the Indian side. As a leader, my idea is to keep everyone together and happy - that is the most important thing," Dhawan said on a TV show. "We have got a lovely bunch of boys, great support staff, and we have worked earlier as well."

Good chemistry with coach

■ Dhawan says he shares a good chemistry with the legendary

Indian team Head coach Rahul Dravid

Rahul Dravid, who is the head coach for the series. "I have a good relationship with Rahul Bhai. When I started playing Ranji Trophy, I played against him, and I have known him since then. When I went to play India A match, I was the captain, and he was the coach, so there was interaction."

■ "When he became the director of NCA, we used to go there for around 20 days, so we had a lot of interaction, and now we have a good chemistry. And now that we have the chance to play six matches together, so it will be great fun, and I think we all sync nicely," he said.

Happy to get youngsters

■ The selectors have picked many uncapped players, including the likes of Rituraj Gaikwad and Chetan Sakariya, and Dhawan wants the youngsters to enjoy their journey.

■ "Happy to get the youngsters in the team and see their dreams come true. It's a big thing that these youngsters have come from their respective home towns with certain dreams, and their dreams are getting fulfilled. "And now, they should enjoy the journey which landed them in team India, and they should know the value of their strength and how to improve it," he said. ❧

Seniors and youngsters from the squad will learn from each other. There are seniors in the team, so the youngsters will learn from them, and we will get to learn from the youngsters. Whenever I meet the youngsters they often have new ways of thinking, and I try to learn things which will help us.

FITNESS THE HOCKEY TEAM'S BIGGEST ASSET

Former India great Dhanraj Pillay believes side can break medal drought in Tokyo

An Olympic medal missing from his own cupboard, Indian hockey great Dhanraj Pillay believes the supremely fit team going for the upcoming Tokyo Games has what it takes to finish on the podium and end the medal drought, which his generation of players could not. Pillay, who represented India in four consecutive Olympics from 1992 to 2004, said fitness is the key asset of the Manpreet Singh-led side going into the Summer Games that begins on July 23 in Tokyo. "I am very confident they will do it this time. They have been doing well in the last 5 years. Fitness is their biggest asset. In those days, we didn't have the kind of support system they have now," the 52-year-old Pillay was quoted as saying in Hockey India's Flashback Series. "This team has done wonders, won hearts of millions with their performances, particularly at the Champions Trophy (in 2016 and 2018) and the World League Finals (2015 and 2017). They can do it this time," he added.

OLYMPIC WATCH

Unable to meet the team personally because of the strict COVID-19 protocols, Pillay sent a letter to Manpreet and women's skipper Rani Rampal, wishing both the teams luck and success in Tokyo. "I would have loved to meet them in person but due to protocols, I did not. I sent them a letter wishing them the very best and I wanted to convey to them that they should be careful about their diet when they are in the Olympic village."

"I wanted to convey to them that they should enjoy the best part of their athletic life by being calm and relaxed," he said. "To both men and women's team, I want to say, don't think about the podium finish. Go match-by-match and stick together as one unit right until the last day, the last match of the tournament." Pillay advised both the Tokyo-bound teams not to think too far ahead.

"I think the mistake we did at every Olympic Games was that we went with the mind set of aiming for the final instead of taking it match-by-match. "Though we had the best teams each time, things did not materialise for us to finish on the podium," he signed off. ❧

VINCE CENTURY POWERS ENG TO SERIES WHITWASH OF PAK

England won the three-match ICC Men's Cricket World Cup Super League ODI series against Pakistan 3-0 by a three-wicket win in the third and final match, which turned out to be a high scoring thriller at Edgbaston, Birmingham on Tuesday. Sent out to bat, Pakistan finished with what looked like a competitive total of 331/9 thanks to Babar Azam's career-best 158 and fifties from Imam-ul-Haq (56) and Mohammad Rizwan (74).

Unfortunately for the visitors, it did not prove enough as England chased down the target with two overs and three wickets to spare, courtesy of a maiden ODI ton from James Vince and an impressive 77 from Lewis Gregory. The right-handed Vince posted the maiden ODI century of his career; he scored 102 off 95 balls (11 fours) to spearhead the big chase - sixth-best by England in ODIs. Both sides will now feature in a three-match T20I series starting July 16 at Trent Bridge, Nottingham. ANI
