GRETA THUNBERG and youth climate protests make a return

Teenage environmental activist Greta Thunberg is back. She joined fellow demonstrators outside the Swedish Parliament on Friday to kick off a day of socially-distanced global climate protests. "The main hope is, as always, to try to have an impact on the level of awareness and public opinion so that people will start becoming more aware," the 17-year-old said. The coronavirus outbreak has prevented the Fridays for Future movement from holding its mass rallies in recent months.

FOR A CAUSE

► Thunberg started her solo protests outside Sweden's parliament in Stockholm on Aug 20, 2018. ► Students around the world soon began following her lead, staging regular protests; she was invited to speak to political and business leaders at the UN conferences and the annual World Economic Forum in Davos. ► The Fridays for Future demand that lawmakers stick to the 2015 landmark Paris climate deal that asks both the rich and the poor countries to take action to curb the rise in global temperatures that is melting glaciers, raising sea levels and shifting rainfall patterns.

75th UN General Assembly

WHAT Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday addressed the 75th United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) virtually in New York. The UNGA, the main policy-making body of the UN came into existence on June 26, 1945. Its charter outlines its key functions, including "promoting international co-operation in the economic, social, cultural, educational and health fields, and assisting in the realisation of human rights and fundamental freedoms for all irrespective of race, sex, language or religion".

WHEN The assembly meets from September to December each year and then again from January to August, if required. The representatives debate and make decisions on issues, such as peace and security and the admittance of new members.

HOW IS IT CONDUCTED: Every year the representatives from each member state — often the head of state — take turns to address the assembly in a week-long General Debate. Each speech is allotted 15 minutes, although in the past they have frequently overrun. The longest speech in UNGA history was made by the Cuban leader, Fidel Castro, lasting for more than four hours.

THEME 2020

The Future we want, the United Nations we need: reaffirming our collective commitment to multilateralism — confronting Covid-19 through effective multilateral action

QUOTE UNQUOTE

Reform in the responses, in the processes, and in the very character of the UN is the need of the hour. For how long will India be kept out of the decision-making structures of the UN? This is a country, which has hundreds of languages, hundreds of dialects, many sects, and many ideologies; this is a country, which was a leading global economy for centuries, and also one, which has endured hundreds of years of foreign rule. How long would a country have to wait particularly, when the transformational changes happening in that country affect a large part of the world?

Narendra Modi, PM, at UNGA

THE BIG Q:

Has the UN lost its sheen over the years? Should India be a part of the UN's decision making structures? Share your views at toinie175@gmail.com

SHAHEED BHAGAT SINGH

Bhagat Singh was a young Indian freedom fighter, who played a major role in revolutionising India's Independence movement. He was convicted for taking revenge for the death of Lala

PM Modi paid tributes to the freedom fighter in his Mann Ki Baat programme. He urged the people to be as patriotic as freedom fighter Shaheed Bhagat Singh Lajpat Rai. While in prison, Singh gained mass national support, when he initiated a 116-day hunger strike, which is till date the longest strike in the history of the world.

MANN KI BAAT: KEY HIGHLIGHTS

1 On the role of storytellers in modern India: Include all inspirational stories from the period of foreign rule, as we are going to celebrate 75 years of Independence. Especially between 1857 and 1947, all small and major incidents can be introduced to our new generation in the form of stories.

2 On how farmers are playing major role in building an Aatmanirbhar Bharat: Our agriculture sector has shown its prowess during the Covid-19 pandemic and farmers are playing a major role in efforts to build a self-reliant India.

NEWS IN BRIEF

SUPER-SMALL RUBIK'S CUBE THAT FITS ON FINGERTIPS TO GO ON SALE IN JAPAN AT $1,900

A small but playable Rubik's Cube, tiny enough to fit on your fingertip, has gone on sale in Japan for 198,000 yen, or about $1,900, with delivery starting December.

ON SALE
Rubik's Cube was invented by a Hungarian architecture professor Erno Rubik in the 1970s. A US company turned it into a hit product in the 1980s

► Billed as a 'super-small' Rubik's Cube, it was created to mark the 40th anniversary, when the original 3D puzzle went on sale in Japan. ► The cube measures just 9.9 millimetres by 9.9 millimetres, and weighs 2 grams (less than a tenth of an ounce). ► It's made of 'ultra-precision metal,' and comes with a box for its display, according to MegaHouse Corp, a subsidiary of Tokyo-based toy maker Bandai Co.

HERE'S WHY ARCTIC IS GETTING GREENER

Parts of the Arctic region have become greener due to increased plant growth stimulated by warmer air and soil temperatures, says a study that used satellite images to track global tundra ecosystems over decades. The study is the first to measure vegetation changes spanning the entire Arctic tundra — from Alaska and Canada to Siberia. "The Arctic tundra is one of the coldest biomes on the Earth, and it's also one of the most rapidly warming," said researchers. "This Arctic greening we see is really a bellwether of global climatic change — it's a biome-scale response to rising air temperatures," they added.

► Greening can represent plants growing more, becoming denser, and/or shrubs encroaching on typical tundra grasses and moss. ► When the tundra vegetation changes, it impacts not only the wildlife that depends on certain plants, but also the people who live in the region and depend on local ecosystems for food. ► While active plants absorb more carbon from the atmosphere, the warming temperatures could also be thawing permafrost, releasing greenhouse gases

Between 1985 and 2016, about 38% of the tundra sites across Alaska, Canada, and western Eurasia showed greening. Only 3% showed the opposite browning effect, which would mean fewer actively growing plants

The productivity of the monsoon session of parliament, a record, according to parliament officials. The 18-day session, which started on September 14, and cut short on Wednesday, eight days ahead of the schedule because of a spurt in the Covid-19 cases among the MPs, Union ministers and parliament staff, was also one of the shortest in 20 years

In all, a total of 25 bills were passed in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha respectively, including 11 bills to replace the ordinances promulgated in June

200 new emojis to be released next year

A new library of emojis has been revealed that seem to reflect the chaos that happened in 2020, such as a mending heart and face with spiral eyes. The Unicode Consortium, the organisation responsible for creating emojis has announced 217 new avatars for Emoji 13.1, which also adds a heart on fire, a face exhaling and a face in the clouds. According to the emoji reference website, Emojipedia, the spiral eyes emoji replaces an existing one, which displayed spiral eyes on some platforms, but X eyes on others.

007 WAS HERE! BRITISH AGENT JAMES BOND WAS IN POLAND IN 1960S, CLAIM COLD WAR ARCHIVES

Yes, you heard it right. Documents uncovered at Poland's Institute of National Remembrance (IPN) have shown that a suspected British agent called James Bond was on Her Majesty's secret service in the country in the 1960s. According to the institute's archive, James Bond came to Poland on February 18, 1964, and was officially employed as an archivist for the British Embassy Military Attache. He soon came to the attention of Polish counter-intelligence officers. Bond was under strict surveillance, and visited Poland to try and "penetrate military facilities" in the Soviet satellite state, according to the files.

The British agent 007 created by author Ian Fleming hit the silver screen in 1962, when actor Sean Connery played the character in the film, 'Dr. No', leading some to suspect that British spies may have been playing a joke on their Polish counterparts with their choice of pseudonym

Five Life Lessons that BTS taught us through their Music

BTS, aka Bulletproof Boy Scouts, was not called bulletproof for nothing. Just like anyone else, these young boys continue to learn things the hard way. They have gradually mastered the art of shielding bullets in life using their invincible weapon called music. TIMES NIE shares with you five among the many valuable life lessons that BTS have taught us through their relatable songs and lyrics. As what Suga said, "We do not have to be mean, we just have to know how to live in this cruel world! So, sit back, relax, and let Chong, Jojun, Balsa tell you more..."

Lesson #5: Love yourself

The most important life lesson of all is to love yourself. We cannot give love to other people if we cannot provide it to ourselves first. Whenever they are talking to the fans, BTS always reminds us that it is important to take care of our body, mind, and soul because these are important for achieving our dreams in life. Believe in yourself that you can always make it. Just enjoy the journey because you only live once, and remember that you never walk alone in this life!

RELATABLE LYRICS: "I wish I could love myself. I wish I could love myself." (Reflection, 2016)

SONGS YOU SHOULD CHECK OUT: Reflection, Awake, A Supplementary Story: You Never Walk Alone

Lesson #1: Don't be afraid to go against the norm

BTS is one of the voices of this generation who are not afraid to speak up on behalf of the underdogs and the oppressed, especially the youth. They taught us that it is okay for us to question the wrong and to fight for the right.

RELATABLE LYRICS: "The world's goin' crazy. How about you, how bout ya? You think it is okay? I don't think it's that okay. Have ears but don't listen, have eyes but don't see. Fish live in all our hearts, its name is selfish, selfish." (Am I Wrong, 2016)

YOU SHOULD CHECK OUT: Am I Wrong, N.O., Spine Breaker, Can You Turn Off Your Phone?

Lesson #3: Never mind the haters

When it comes to handling haters, BTS is an expert. We are surrounded every day by all sorts of people. Some will be nice to us, while many others are negative people who drown in envy, jealousy, hatred, and crab mentality. As much as possible, and as hard as it is, just shake them off! Fighting and getting into an argument might be our first defence mechanism, but ignoring them would always be the best thing to do. Through their songs, BTS teach us - just focus on becoming successful, while being humble.

RELATABLE LYRICS: "Whatever ma haters say, I'm real for my music. Real for my music, real for my music." (We On, 2013)

SONGS YOU SHOULD CHECK OUT: We On, Not Today...

WHAT IS KPOP?

> Kpop is short for Korean popular music. It is mainstream music that originated from South Korea. Korean pop music in Korea could be thought of as similar to Taylor Swift in the United States. > You may see the Korean pop written as K-pop, K pop, Kpop, K-Pop...

WHAT IS KPOP MUSIC?

The term Kpop includes many different musical genres under its umbrella. Along with Korean pop, it can also include rock, hip hop, and electronic music. Kpop is considered a fairly new form of music. The type of music that you're listening to today was formed around the 1990s.

WHAT WAS THE VERY FIRST KPOP GROUP?

Unlike other musical genres, contemporary Kpop start can be pinpointed to a certain date: April 11, 1992 - when the groups Seo Taiji and The Boys performed their music on TV for the first time. This was the driving force that also led to the formation of other groups.

Lesson #2: Value your family and friends

BTS reminds us to give importance to our loved ones and the relationship we have with them. Life is short, and we do not know until when we are going to be with them! Taehyung (a member of the band) never forgets to thank and honour his parents and grandparents whenever they achieve something, which is a very good example of filial piety. Always thank the people who have been with us through our ups and downs, especially those who have always given us strength and support.

RELATABLE LYRICS: "I feel like I'm going to die when hyung is sad. When hyung is in pain, it hurts more than when I'm in pain." (Begin, 2016)

SONGS YOU SHOULD CHECK OUT: Begin, Stigma, MAMA, Spring Day, Move

Lesson #4: Pursue your dreams while you enjoy your youth

Youth is the most beautiful moment in our lives and once it is lost, it is gone forever. Treasure every moment, opportunities, and adventures that we have right now while doing what our heart really desires. Discover our purpose in life, fuel it with our passion, and pursue our dreams. BTS taught us that everything is possible when we believe and work hard for it. We might feel lost in life, but do not worry because it is part of the journey.

RELATABLE LYRICS: "Because the dawn right before the sun rises is the darkest. Even in the far future, never forget the you of right now."

Wherever you are right now, you're just taking a break. Don't give up, you know." (Tomorrow, 2014)

SONGS YOU SHOULD CHECK OUT: Tomorrow, Epilogue: Young Forever, First Love, Outro: WINGS, No More Dream, Lost and others in this genre.

Why we always say read it before you watch it

With the emerging popularity of e-streaming platforms in the past few years, there has been a bigger push to adapt books to a screen format. Earlier books were only made into movies which, more often than not, would disappoint the fans of the books, even they were popular with those who hadn't read it. Still, adaptations are popular and on the rise. Research commissioned by the Publishers Association and produced by Frontier Economics in 2018 found that the movie adaptations of books gross 44% more at the UK box office and a full 53% more worldwide than those based on original screenplays and this could be why companies invest in such adaptations. With all these books being adapted to screen, many feel there's no point reading the book for the adaptation will be enough, but this isn't the case. Here is why you should always read the book before watching the adaptation:

the iceberg of what the book contained. Movies, in particular, have to cut down backstory and in some cases this can be very confusing for those who haven't read the book before.

TO KNOW WHO ELSE IS IMPORTANT IN THE STORY 'BESIDES' THE PROTAGONIST

Often books only show the perspective of one character and screen adaptations give views on what is happening out of their knowledge. Some adaptations, particularly TV/web series have even added characters or made minor characters into important ones, adding dimensions and side plots to the main story and taking it deeper. While this has many advantages, it can often change the plot of the story and the message the author was trying to convey might get lost.

Can you name some movie adaptations of popular books which didn't do justice to the books. Tell us at timesnie175@gmail.com

FOR THE ADVENTURE

When one reads, they visualise and feel. It is said that "No two persons ever read the same book" and this is true for everyone's journey with a book is a unique adventure and even if one rereads a book, they will have changed from who they were when they first read it. When one reads a book they have an idea of how it will be and this might be different to what the movie makers experienced. The movie will come out a separate work of art in itself and viewing it will be a different experience.

TO KNOW THE BACKSTORY

Often the screen adaptations are but a tip of

FOR THE MESSAGE

Some adaptations are so far from the book and the only things they have in common are character names and the title. Changes are made to give the story a broader appeal and reading the book beforehand gives an interesting insight into the difference between a novelist's and scriptwriter's perspective.

TO AVOID THE CLICHES

The movie industry has received a lot of criticism for not evolving in terms of femininity, inclusivity or sticking with popular tropes and encouraging cliches rather than improving.

2 AVOCADO RECIPES FOR GOOD HEALTH

Avocado is one of the most nutrient dense fruits with vitamins A and C and other minerals and good fats too. Incorporate it in your diet to get its goodness. Here are some recipes you could try

Avocado pickle

- In a small saucepan over medium heat, combine 1 cup white vinegar, 1 cup water, 1/3 cup sugar and 1 tbsp salt and bring to a boil, stirring frequently. When the sugar and salt have dissolved, set aside to cool.
- In a jar, place 1 tsp red pepper flakes, 1 crushed garlic clove, 5 sprigs of cilantro, and 2 avocados (peeled and thinly sliced). Pour cooled pickling mixture into the jar and seal tightly with a lid. Refrigerate for at least 3 hours before serving.

Avocado hummus

Combine 2 cup canned chickpeas, 2 avocados (peeled and diced), 1/3 cup tahini, 1/4 cup lime juice, 2 garlic cloves, 3 tbsp olive oil and 1/4 tsp cumin in the bowl of a food processor, and season with some salt. Blend until smooth. Pour mixture into serving bowl and garnish with 1 tbsp chopped cilantro and 1 tsp red pepper flakes. Drizzle with more olive oil if desired. Serve fresh.

Avocados are rich in B vitamins, which help prevent disease and infection. They are also loaded with vitamins C and E, plus natural plant chemicals that may help prevent cancer

KES donates smart phones to students

The Kandivli Education Society provides new smart phones with SIM cards and one year mobile data to students of class X of SVPV Vidyalaya, Kandivli West, a government aided school. According to principal Dr Sangeeta Sri-vastava, "Since the online classes began in June 2020, few students were not attending the classes at all in class X. Although there are several students in lower classes who due to many reasons cannot attend virtual classes, they are using alternative means of learning using the apps like Diksha and free textbooks provided by the education department, Whatsapp or YouTube. Students of class X need to study from board point of view. After a month we discovered that many students either could not afford to buy a computer or smartphone, or had only one gadget at home to be shared by parents and siblings."

"We have been getting many donors for text books and notebooks but during this period of Covid 19, it is important that students attend online classes to cover up their syllabus. The management of The Kandivli Education Society is always concerned about its students progress and they donated 32 GB smart phones so that these students could study and join online classes and not affect their studies," she added.

President KES Sri Satish Dattani and Hon Secretary Sri MD Chandarana and other office bearers of KES always take active interest in student welfare.

They took a step further by providing SIM card with internet data for the year so that students do not suffer on this account.

These students are now excited to attend classes like other students.

HINDI DIWAS CELEBRATION

Canossa High school, Andheri East

The principal, teachers and students of Canossa High School, Andheri, East celebrated Hindi Diwas on 16 September, through online celebration, as a mark of acknowledgement of Hindi as the National language.

The celebration began with a prayer. Students welcomed honorable chief guest principal Sister Margaret Sequeira.

After that few students shared some Hindi poems, slogans, proverbs. Some students gave speech extolling importance of Hindi language. Also students presented idioms' antakshari.

A humorous skit was presented, it highlighted how people take help of English words by while talking in Hindi.

Hindi is spoken across the nation and serves the purpose of uniting this linguistically and culturally rich and diverse country.

Principal Sister Margaret Sequeira spoke about importance of Hindi Language and how it's of use in daily life and urged everyone to feel proud of the National language. The celebration concluded with the prayer and Vote of thanks by students.

The programme was managed by

Students' play wins hearts and accolades

The students of class IX of Ramsheth Thakur Public School, Kharghar, staged the play: The Book That Saved The Earth by Claire Boiko, a science fantasy, as part of the ongoing British Council International School Awards, for developing culture and international skills.

The main focus in choosing this play was to enlighten the audience about the future scenario of inter-galactic societies and the subtle humour interspersed with it.

The writer wants us to dwell on the point that sometimes in life; seemingly unobtrusive things become agents or media of changes of big magnitude.

The students enjoyed emoting and acting. The biggest reward of this ISA activity was the journey of learning, encouragement and support the students developed for a collaborative learning with international ethos. They not only compared authors of India, Georgia, England and USA, but got an idea of genre of the old and its comparison with the new.

It was a learning experience for all the students on the creation, execution and completion of any project such as a play, creating a script with apt dialogue delivery. The principal, Raj Aloni was happy that the students had decided on a play with an important moral message for a project of this scale.

SPORTS ARE IMPORTANT

Sports play a major role in our lives and personality development. Sports teaches us a ton of different things. The first thing it teaches is to never give up. I, myself am a chess player and surprisingly it works. I have learnt a lot of things by playing chess. It encourages us to keep on fighting without losing hope even if we are on the verge of losing.

It teaches us perseverance. Success is an outcome of tremendous practice. It teaches the importance of hard work. No matter how good you are, someone who works hard will always get ahead of you.

Sports teaches us that winning and losing are a part of sport. There can never be two winners. It teaches you to accept defeat. Defeat teaches you to learn from your mistakes and improve upon them.

It teaches us teamwork. Some of the best friends in life come from playing sports together as a team. This increases the feeling of oneness among the players.

It teaches us to respect our opponents. We should also respect our opponents and never underestimate them. Sports teaches us to be modest and never be arrogant and boastful about ourselves.

The most important thing it teaches us is concentration. Concentration is required in each and every sport. Everything that we do, we should do it with attentiveness. We should not lose our focus no matter what. All these life lessons are taught to us by sports and hence it is very important to have sports in one's life.

LITTLE WOMEN BY LOUISA MAY ALCOTT

Little Women by Louisa May Alcott is a must-read classic. The novel discusses generosity, sharing, fraternal love, infatuation and living amidst poverty. The story follows the lives of the March sisters: Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy as they live in hard times. Their father is away fighting in the Civil War. But life takes an interesting turn when the sisters befriend their lonely but affluent neighbour, Laurie.

The book teaches us valuable morals of kindness, empathy, humility, forgiveness and being independent. Throughout the narrative, we are reminded that giving is a greater joy than receiving. It is within Jo March that I found my next inspiration. Jo is rebellious, an artist and has a knack for mischief. Louisa May Alcott is the real life Jo.

The book encourages young girls to be independent and support themselves; to live life on their own terms. The feminist thoughts and actions of Alcott are reflected in Jo March. In one of the most iconic lines in the history of English Literature, Alcott writes "I'm happy as I am, and love my liberty too well to be in a hurry to give it up for any mortal man."

From Mumbai Indians' skipper Rohit Sharma, Kings XI Punjab captain KL Rahul to rising talents Mayank Agarwal and Sanju Samson, Indian batsmen have dominated the initial proceedings of the Indian Premier League

How Indian batsmen are dominating in UAE

132* vs RCB

K L Rahul

Kings XI Punjab skipper K L Rahul entered his name in the history books when his side squared off against Kohli-led RCB on matchday 6 of the IPL 2020. Rahul destroyed the potent RCB bowling attack and also eclipsed Master Blaster Sachin Tendulkar to become the fastest batsman to score 2,000 runs in the IPL. Rahul's matchwinning 132 off 69 balls is the highest score by an Indian in IPL history and also the highest score by an IPL captain.

Rohit Sharma

The Hitman, Rohit Sharma thrashed the bowling unit of the Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR) which was spearheaded by the likes of Pat Cummins, Kuldeep Yadav, and Shivam Mavi. Guiding MI to their first win of the season, Rohit also became the second Indian after MS Dhoni to hit 200 sixes in the IPL. Rohit's memorable 80 off 54 balls helped Mumbai ease past KKR by 49 runs.

80 vs KKR

Sanju Samson

Samson's blitzkrieg paved the way for Steve Smith-led Rajasthan Royals (RR) to register a surprise win over former champions CSK. Samson enthralled with a splendid 74 in just 32 balls as RR touched down a challenging 216 for 7 in 20 overs. Riding on the stupendous 74, Smith and Co. opened their account with an emphatic win over Chennai.

74 vs CSK

Mayank Agarwal

Mayank Agarwal was a man on a mission when Punjab crossed swords with Delhi Capitals (DC). Agarwal, who cemented his place in the longest format on the international circuit, is also a white-ball specialist. The star batsman staged an impressive fightback for Punjab in the opening fixture. But his innings went in vain as the swashbuckling batsman failed to rescue KXIP.

89 vs DC

Ambati Rayudu

Kickstarting the 13th edition with fireworks, veteran batsman Ambati Rayudu showed valour and grit to propel Chennai towards a comfortable win over defending champions Mumbai in the curtain-raiser of the 13th season. Rayudu's 71 off 48 was instrumental in Chennai's first and only win so far in the cash-rich tournament. The swashbuckling batsman missed two games after an injury following his heroics against the Rohit-led side.

71 vs MI

'NOT ACCEPTABLE' - Warner disappointed with sluggish SRH batting

Sunrisers Hyderabad (SRH) captain David Warner said that the team needs to increase the frequency of their boundaries and sixes after they sunk to a seven-wicket loss to Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR) on Saturday. SRH have thus started their 2020 campaign in the IPL with consecutive defeats. "We have to try and go harder at the top. Can't help if the bowlers are bowling good lines and lengths, we need to push as hard as we can," said Warner on Star Sports after the match.

You can see from our running between the wickets, we do that but we got to improve our boundary percentage. I saw, I think 35 dot balls, which is not acceptable in T20 cricket on a wicket that was nice to bat on. We just mis-executed in the middle.

the way we wanted to play, unfortunately through the middle, we could have gone probably a little harder, we could have taken few more risks. It was a very soft and poor dismissal from myself, my dismissal happened when we were looking to change the gears, I don't blame anyone and I take full responsibility for not batting out the overs.

In the match against KKR, I and Jonny got ourselves in and we backed ourselves to play

Andre Russell is like a wrestler: Dinesh Karthik

Kolkata Knight Riders skipper Dinesh Karthik who has been leading Andre Russell from IPL 2018, gave a hilarious answer when asked by Ravichandran Ashwin in a YouTube show called 'Hello Dubaiah' hosted by the former about the method of opposition bowlers bowling to him. "How do you bowl to him? His miss-hit is a six with 8m clearance, decent hit 15m and a whack is out of the ground. As a captain how can an opposition bowler bowl to him?" asked Ashwin to Karthik. Karthik, who has been leading Russell from IPL 2018, gave a hilarious answer. "First pray to God. Give him an offering. Pray that he's in a bad mood,

The explosive hitter Russell was the hero in the last two seasons of IPL where he scored at a strike-rate in excess of 180 in almost every game.

and then go for IPL. Then the day, the wicket, the conditions (matter)," Karthik said. "Just watching him walk in is scary. He comes in like a wrestler. What a build up he gives while doing that. He's a brilliant character. With his muscles and all, he looks like an MMA fighter," Karthik added.

I won't make same New York mistake twice: Djokovic

Novak Djokovic insisted there will be no repeat of his sensational US Open disqualification at Roland Garros as the world number one promised: "I won't make the same mistake twice". Djokovic was defaulted in New York when a ball he swiped away in frustration struck a line judge. As well as attracting wide-ranging condemnation for his perceived petulance, the incident also went down in the record books as a defeat - the Serb's only loss in 32 matches in 2020. "Well, obviously I am going to be extra careful of hitting a tennis ball around the court," said Djokovic. "That's something that is staying in my mind after what happened in New York. It's going to stay there for a long time. Of course, I will make sure I don't make the same mistake twice."

Wish Jadeja would have been with RR: Warner

LA Lakers reach their first NBA finals in decade

LeBron James had 38 points, 16 rebounds and 10 assists, leading the Los Angeles Lakers to their first NBA finals in a decade with a 117-107 victory over Denver Nuggets in the Western Conference finals on Saturday. Anthony Davis scored 27 points for the Lakers, in their first NBA finals since 2010, when they beat Boston Celtics in seven games. They will face Boston Celtics or Miami Heat.
